

RIFLE CONTESTS AT SEA GIRT TODAY

FAMOUS RIFLE RANGES WILL BE
SCENE OF GREAT GATHERING OF RIFLE SHOTS—CASH PRIZES.

Special to the Herald.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 27.—During the two weeks beginning today the famous rifle ranges here will be the scene of the greatest gathering of rifle shots that the United States has ever witnessed. The occasion is the rifle matches shot under the auspices of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the National Rifle Association of America and the New Jersey State Rifle Association. The tournament opened today with the matches of the National Rifle Association and the New Jersey State Rifle Association, which will continue the remainder of the week. The national board matches will begin next Monday, and continue through Thursday and probably longer.

Nearly forty state teams are entered, with four from the regulars and one from West Point. The new contestants this year are Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Colorado, New Mexico and Oklahoma. Victory in the national match, according to the opinion of a majority of the experts here, probably rests, among New York, the United States Infantry, Ohio, the marine corps, New Jersey and the District of Columbia. Cash prizes aggregating $2400 will be distributed among the winners.

Frisco Insurance Cases.

Special to the Herald.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 27.—The first insurance case involving the earthquake clause was called for trial today before Superior Judge Hebbard. The case is that of the Rosenthal Shoe Company against the Williamsburg Insurance Company. It is regarded as a test case and both insurance companies and claimants probably will be guided in their course by the decision in this case.

Goethe's Last Moments.

The story of the death of Goethe reveals a striking picture of fortitude, artistic calm and intellectual activity in the chilling dews of death. The poet is gathered from a letter dated March 23, 1832, the day after his death, by Fraulein Louise, his art student and, close to him, before his dissolution, with an icy coldness taking possession of him and the death rattle beginning to be audible. Goethe, with his charming daughter-in-law by his side, would talk of nothing but his pet theory of color, of the treaty of Basle, of his desire that the children should go to the theater, of his plans for the near future. As sleep did not come with the night, he called for a newly published volume of history, and covered his inability to read it with a joke. Even at 7 o'clock the next morning, just three and a half hours before he died, he sent for a portfolio to talk optics and was setting himself to classify some papers when the last agony seized him. He then lay motionless, notwithstanding his violence, till respiration ceased and the heart stood still.—London Globe.

How to Handle Your Horse.

Decision should never in handling horses be confounded with unwise determination to have things your way. In this application it means the faculty of doing the right thing at the right instant and may be cultivated by frequent practice with all sorts of horses, and of course no hands were ever developed by handling any one animal or any one kind of a horse. It is decision that gives the hand the moment the horse yields; that uses the roughest methods at a pinch, for hands are by no means always delicate of touch; that frustrates the most determined attempts of blazer, reiner or bolter; that picks the best road; that makes the animal carry himself to the best advantage for the purpose of the moment. Decision is very close to intuition in effect. Decision dominates the situation at many critical moments, and the horse is quick to discern and to presume upon its absence. There is no such thing as a safe partnership with a horse. You must be the master or he will be, to your certain future discomfiture.—F. M. Ware in Outing Magazine.

WEAK AND WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs. When housework is a torture. When night brings no rest or sleep. When urinary disorders set in. Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Palestine. This is one Palestine's woman's testimony:

Mrs. M. C. Hillyer, formerly residing in Palestine, at 405 N. Sycamore street, says: "There was a constant soreness across my back, and when stooping or exerting myself the pain became very sharp. If I took cold it always settled in my kidneys, causing extra pain and annoyance. I tried different remedies, but none brought permanent results or I would not have gone to the Bratton Drug Co's store for Doan's Kidney Pills. In a very short time the remedy drove the pain away. Other members of my family have used Doan's Kidney pills, receiving the greatest benefits. Doan's Kidney Pills in my case acted as represented, and I heartily recommend them at every opportunity as the best remedy I ever used."

Lightning Speed.

Mayor McClellan of New York, who so narrowly escaped taking the Plymouth-London train that was wrecked last month, was dining in London at the Carlton.

A number of Americans were in the fashionable restaurant, and they all took coffee together in the foyer after dinner, seated at little tables on the low, white balcony, near the orchestra, which affords so fine a view of restaurant and foyer both.

The talk turned to high speed and its perils, the perilous high speed of motor cars, express trains and the like.

Mayor McClellan smiled and said: "There is, undoubtedly, always something dangerous about speed. When I was a student at Princeton there was a middle-aged cook, a simple-minded woman with a good deal of money saved, who suddenly got herself engaged to a horse jockey.

"I saw the cook standing looking out of her kitchen window with a dazed expression one morning, and I said to her:

"What is the matter, Hannah?"

"Why, sir," she said, "with my husband that is to be, everything goes with such lightning speed that it's confusin'! Day before yesterday we got acquainted, yesterday we was engaged, and today I find that he already owes me eighty-five dollars."—New Orleans States.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Palestine and Vicinity:
Fair tonight. Tuesday partly cloudy and warmer.
Minimum temperature, 66; maximum, 89.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The high pressure over the Northwest has moved to Kansas, carrying fair and cooler weather over the lake region, the Central Mississippi valley and the Southwest. The temperature is under fifty degrees in Kansas, Nebraska, the Northwest and Rocky Mountain states; the lowest was 44 degrees in South Dakota.

A storm center with a pressure of 29.76 inches is over the Middle Atlantic states; it is causing high temperature over the North and Middle Atlantic states, and rains from Washington northward. It was attended yesterday by general rains in all the cotton belt. It is as warm this morning in the North Atlantic coast as it is on the Gulf coast.

Continued cool and fair weather is indicated for the vicinity of Palestine tonight, and Tuesday will be fair and warmer.

THE SUMMER OF DISCONTENT ENDS

THE THEATRICAL SEASON OF 1906-07 IS AT HAND IN NEW YORK CITY.—PLAY TONIGHT.

Special to the Herald.

New York, Aug. 27.—This is the red letter day for the thespian who had little else to do during the past two months than to keep on the shady side of upper Broadway and discuss the plans for the coming season. In the words of the immortal bard of Avon it marks the end of "our summer of discontent." In common parlance it means that the theatrical season of 1906-07 is at hand. The past few seasons have been most prosperous ones for actors, managers and all others concerned in the theatrical business. Now all are on edge in anticipation of another fruitful harvest of dollars. Since the middle of July every available theatre and hall in New York has been pressed into service for the rehearsal of new plays. Sometimes two plays have been under rehearsal in the same auditorium at the same time. All sorts of shows will take to the road within the next few weeks. The all-important question is, which will prove most successful this season—the plays of the higher order, the musical shows or the melo-drama? The answer remains the secret of the fickle public. Musical comedy has been on the wane of late. Astute managers are placing their faith in the melo-drama and there will be scores of plays on the road this season depicting the trials and tribulations of the honest working girl dodging the traps and temptations laid by the deep-dyed villain. Arrangements also are being made to bring out several big spectacular productions, but these will not be put on until late in the season. Many of the leading players plan to begin their season with the successes of last year.

At Daly's Theatre tonight "Marrying Mary," with Marie Cahill as the star, will be given its New York premier. It is a musical play by Edwin Milton Royle. The piece also will mark the first appearance in musical comedy of William Courtleigh, who has been engaged for the leading role. Another opening tonight is that of the Hackett, formerly Fields' Theatre, in West Forty-second street. The house has been leased for the season by Jas. K. Hackett, who will run it as an independent house. The initial attraction is "The Little Stranger."

MARRIED BY TELEPHONE.

Minister Was Unable to Go to Couple, and Telephone Was Used.

Jacksonville, Texas, Aug. 26.—On Thursday night a minister here was called up from out of town and requested to come for the purpose of marrying a couple. He had just returned from conducting a funeral in the country and did not feel like making the trip, so he notified the couple of his inability to go. The young people were determined to get married, and finally succeeded in persuading the minister to marry them by phone. The license was read to the minister by a third party, after which each contracting party was called by phone with the minister and each obligated separately.

"Join your right hands," said the minister, and then after a few words the ceremony was closed with, "I pronounce you man and wife."

"What do I owe you?" inquired the groom.

"Just send up what you think is right," replied the preacher.

So far this is the first couple ever married in Texas over a phone.

Chicago a Milling Center.

Special to the Herald.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 27.—Chicago in its efforts to become a milling center has secured a considerable advantage. On and after today the Western roads will not accept a lower rate for the transportation of flour than they get for hauling wheat. This action removes one discrimination against Chicago; and Minneapolis, Kansas City and other Western milling cities lose an advantage which they have heretofore had.
